Subject: RE: Sharing Juneau Co Report

I'm on the phone with Chuck right now. Considering the problems we're having, he and I both believe that David can look at the report when it's on the website. Chuck will leave David a voicemail message letting him know that we anticipate putting the report on the website today.

Subject: Sharing Juneau Co Report

I just talked with Andy about sharing the report and he said the best way was via Sharepoint/OneDrive. However, whomever we want to share the report with via this option has to have a MS account. WDNR definitely does but I don't know about David Crass (attorney for Armenia Growers Coalition). If he doesn't, we'll have to send instructions on how to do that.
